An Act for reviving of a former Act, Entituled, An Act against Unlicensed and Scandalous Books and Pamphlets, and for Regulating of Printing, with some Additions and explanations.

[7 January, 1652/3.]

The Act of 20 Sept. 1649, revived with some alterations.

Whereas a late Act, Entituled, An Act against Unlicensed and Scandalous Books and Pamphlets, and for better Regulating of Printing, hath appeared by experience to be a good and profitable Law for the ends therein expressed; and that the discontinuance thereof hath occasioned some lewd Pens and Presses to reassume their former boldness, in Writing, Printing and Dispersing Unwarrantable, Seditious and Scandalous Papers, Books and Pamphlets, to the great dishonor of God and offence of the Parliament, and insufferable contempt of all good Order and Government; And whereas many of the Evils and Exorbitances complained of in that Act, appear to have been much occasioned through the multiplying of Printing-houses, without any Warrant or Authority, and by reason of the Artifice and Subtilty of restless Spirits, unwilling to be confined within the limits of orderly Government; The Parliament of England taking the premises into their serious consideration, finde it requisite to revive and explain the said Law, and to supply the further Remedies following; Be it therefore by the Authority of this present Parliament Enacted, Ordained and Declared, That the said Act, Entituled as aforesaid, and all the Clauses therein contained, Saving for so much thereof wherein alteration shall be made by this present Act, be from henceforth revived, and remain in full force and vertue.

Evils occasioned by th multiplicity of Printing-houses.

Council of State to order Printers.

And forasmuch as the Life and Growth of all Arts and Mysteries consisteth in a due Regulation thereof, Be it therefore Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the Government and Regulation of the said Mystery of Printing and Printers, shall from henceforth be and remain in the Council of State for the time being; and that the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Company of Stationers London, shall follow and observe such Rules, Orders and Directions concerning the Regulation of Printing, as they shall from time to time have and receive from the said Council successively: And the said Council of State for the time being, and Master, Wardens and Assistants of the said Company, according to such Rules and Directions as they shall receive from the said Council, are hereby Authorized and Required to use all good means with care and diligence, for the preventing and punishing of Offences and Misdemeanors against this Act, and the Laws, Statutes and Ordinances heretofore made and now in force, against Unlicensed and Scandalous Books and Pamphlets, and for the better Regulating of Printing.

Council of State to Regulate the Mystery of Printing.

And be it further Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That no person or persons shall or may at any time or times hereafter, Excepting such as shall be Licensed and Authorized by the Parliament or Council of State, or may claim a Priviledge thereunto by Patrimonial Right, Use or Exercise the Art, Trade

Printers must exercise their Trade in their dwelling-houses.

And whereas by the said recited Act, it is provided amongst other things, That no Dry-fats, Packs, Maunds, Chests, Fardels of Books Imported into this Commonwealth, be permitted by any Officers of the Customs or Excise to be Opened or Conveyed away before Notice given; and that the same be Searched and Viewed (within Forty eight Hours after such notice) by the said Master and Wardens of the said Company of Stationers, or such as they shall appoint; It is hereby now Enacted and Declared, That the Lords-Days, and Days of Publique Thanksgiving and Humiliation (if any such shall happen within the said Forty eight Hours next after such Notice as aforesaid) be not accompted nor reckoned as part of the said Forty eight Hours.

An Act For making Salt-Petre.

[9 Feb., 1652/3.]

The Parliament taking into consideration how necessary it is, in this time of War, to have a constant and certain supply of Gunpowder for the supply of the Armies and Navies imployed for the defence and safety of this Commonwealth, finde it requisite, That the digging of Petre and making of gun-powder, be by all good ways and means encouraged; Be it therefore Enacted and Ordained, and it is Enacted and Ordained by this present Parliament and Authority thereof, That such person and persons as shall be from time to time nominated and allowed by the Parliament or Councel of State for the time being, their Factors, Workmen and Servants, shall have power and authority, and are hereby impowred and authorized to dig for Salt petre, in all Stables, Cellars, Vaults, Ware-houses, and other Out-houses, Yards, and other places not paved nor planked, like to afford that Earth, at fitting seasons in the day time; viz. From half an hour after Sun-rising, to one hour before Sun-setting; and shall dig in Pigeon-houses likely to afford such Earth, from eleven of the clock until three in the afternoon, and no longer in any one day.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Floor, Earth or place, shall be broken up or opened by the persons authorized as aforesaid, That the Salt-petre-men imployed there in that work, shall with all speed, and before Liquor, Materials and Utensils be removed from the place, at their own costs and charges, make, lay down and repair, the floors and planks so broken up and opened, in good and sufficient order to the content of the owner, and also repair and make good any damage that shall be done by them: And if the said Salt-petre-men shall neglect or fail within Fourteen days to make, lay down or repair the same, That then, upon complaint made by the party or parties injured, unto any one Justice of the Peace of the said County, or chief Officer of the Corporation where the Offence was committed, such Justice of the Peace or chief Officer, shall and may send for the person and persons so offending, and upon Oath to examine the Offence, and Witnesses concerning the same; and if the Offence shall be proved, then the Offender or Offenders shall be committed to the common Goal, and lie at his own charge without Bail or Mainprize, until he or they have made satisfaction unto the person or persons injured, for all such monies as shall appear upon Oath before the said Justice of the Peace, he or they have necessarily laid out in the laying down, making or repairing of such Floors, Earth or place, opened and broken up as aforesaid, together with such damages as he or they have sustained, which shall be ascertained by the said Justice of the Peace to whom complaint shall be made as aforesaid. And forasmuch as the Salt-petre-men for the service of the State, are to bring in a proportion of Salt-petre weekly, which they can in no wise do if they should be denyed to dig and work for Salt-petre, which is hoped no well-affected persons will do; Yet for the more effectual carrying on of the said work, Be it Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons whatsoever, shall hinder or refuse to suffer the Salt-petre-men, allowed as aforesaid to dig and work for Salt-petre, according to the Rules and Limitations before mentioned, that upon complaint thereof made to any Justice of the Peace of the County or place where the Offence is committed, such Justice of the Peace shall and may send for such person or persons, and examine the truth of the complaint upon Oath, and give order concerning the same; and if such person or persons notwithstanding shall hinder, or refuse to suffer the said Salt-petre-men to work, That then such person or persons shall be bound over to the next Sessions of the Peace, there to answer his said contempt, and to be proceeded against by way of Indictment upon this Act; and upon conviction shall be Fined according to the quality of the Offence. And it is likewise Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Salt-petre-men, for the carriage of Liquor, Vessels, and other Utensils from place to place, and delivering of the Salt-petre, where the same shall be made into Gunpowder, or unto such place or places as the Parliament or Councel of State shall appoint; it shall be lawful for the Salt-petre-men to demand and take Carts or Carriages, by the High-Constables, Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other known Officers, who are hereby required from time to time to be aiding and assisting in the said service, and to press no more Carts and Carriages then shall be necessary for the said Service, so as the lading shall not exceed Twenty hundred Weight, and the Journey not exceed seven Miles by common estimation; for carriage whereof, The Owner shall be paid after the Rate of Twelve pence by the Mile, by the Salt-petre-men imployed as aforesaid, at the first setting out and beginning of his Journey. Provided, That no Cart or Carriage be prest or taken up for this service, but such as belong to persons dwelling within two Miles of the place where the said lading is to be taken up; and the said Salt-tetre-men are likewise to be freed from all Tolls demandable for any of their carriages used about their said Works. And it is further Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That such Salt-petre-men as shall be allowed as aforesaid, shall and may take and draw water fit for their said Works, out of any River, Spring, Pond, Brook, Well, Pump or Conduit, without any let or molestation of any person or persons whatsoever. And forasmuch as Abuses have been formerly done to the country, by discharging for money or rewards, carts and carriages prest for the Publique service, and by forbearing to dig in such places, and to work such earth as is fit to make Saltpetre; Be it therefore Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person imployed as aforesaid, or imployed in or about the impressing of Carts or Carriages, do or shall, from and after the First of March, One thousand six hundred fifty-two, take any Money or Reward, directly or indirectly, to free or discharge any Cart or Carriages, he or they shall forfeit and pay Forty shillings for every such Offence, whereof one moyety shall be distributed to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence was committed, and the other moyety to him that shall prosecute for the same, besides his reasonable costs and charges expended in such Suit; and if any person or persons authorized as aforesaid, their Factors, Agents, Servants or Workmen, shall take or receive any Moneys, Reward or Gift directly or indirectly, to forbear to dig in such places, and to work Salt-petre in any Floor or Place, in which they are authorized to work by this Act, That then such Offender shall forfeit and pay Five pounds for every such Offence, the one moyety to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence was committed, the other moyety to the person or persons who shall sue for the same, by any Bill, Plaint or Information, besides his reasonable Costs and Charges in the prosecution of such Suit; which Suits shall or may be prosecuted before the Justices of the Peace at their General Sessions of the Peace, and the sums there adjudged shall be levied by their Warrant, by distress or sale of the Offenders Goods, rendring to the Owner the overplus: And if the person or persons so offending shall not be able to make satisfaction, That then he or they shall be committed to Prison, there to remain for six Moneths, without Bail or Mainprize. For the better keeping and preserving of the Surveys, and all such Records and Writings as shall concern the premises, You are to appoint some convenient and publique Place or House within the City of Dublin, for the Surveyors-General and the Register to keep their said Offices in, as you shall think fit.

The Surveyors-General shall have each of them, from the date of their Commission, the yearly salary of Four hundred pounds, and the Register the yearly salary of Three hundred pounds; the one half whereof to be paid to each of them in ready Money quarterly, by equal portions out of the Revenue of Ireland by your Warrant, the other half in Lands after the same rate as shall be allowed to those who have money due upon Publique Faith.

And whereas it is intended that the Adventurers, Soldiers and Officers should be satisfyed, and Ireland planted with as much expedition as may be, you are to consider and advise, whether by any other way or means then is before, in and by these Instructions prescribed, with less expence, and in a shorter time, a gross Survey may be taken of the several Honors, Baronies, Manors, Lands or Tenements so forfeited as aforesaid; so as there may be some certainty what Honors, Baronies, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments are forfeited, and an Estimate made what quantity of Meadow, arrable and profitable Pasture, and what Woods, Bogs and barren Mountains are belonging to each of them respectively, that thereby way may be made for Alotments between the Adventurers and the said Soldiers and Officers: and afterwards, upon the Division or Alotment of each persons respective proportion, or in some convenient time after, a more exact admeasurement may be made: And in case you shall finde the same may be effected, you are hereby authorized and required to take such speedy course therein (without proceeding by the way of Under-surveyors herein before prescribed) as you shall judge most expedient and effectual to lessen the charge, and shorten the work. And you are impowered to imploy therein, such and so many persons, and to allow them such Salaries or Recompence, to be paid in such maner, and to give them Orders and Instructions to proceed therein, by such ways and means as you shall think fit: And you are to cause such gross Surveys of each particular Honor, Barony, Manor, Lands or Tenements, and of the quantity and number of Acres of Meadow, arrable and profitable Pasture, by estimation (together with the Woods, Bogs and barren Mountains) to each of them respectively (or to any two or more of them adjoyning or lying together) belonging, to be taken and returned in writing, under the hands of such persons as aforesaid, to the Surveyors-General, and a Duplicate thereof to the Register for the said Lands, with all possible expedition.

You shall observe and execute such further Instructions in and about the premises, as you shall from time to time receive from the present Councel of State (until the Meeting of the Supream Authority of this Nation) and afterwards from the said Supream Authority, or others authorized by them on that behalf.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was made the twelfth day of August, One thousand six hundred fifty two, Entituled, An Act for the setling of Ireland, whereby it is Declared, That all and every person and persons of the Irish Nation comprehended in any of the qualifications in that Act contained, should be lyable to the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned and contained, or be made capable of the Mercy and Pardon therein extended respectively, as is expressed and declared in the said Act and qualifications, to the end that no person or persons who is not comprehended within the said Qualifications or any of them, may receive prejudice in his Lands or Estate, and that every person to whom it doth belong may enjoy the Mercy and Favor intended unto him by the said Act; You are hereby authorized to receive, hear and finally determine the Complaints and Claims of all and every such person and persons, as shall before or within such time as you shall appoint, not exceeding Forty days at the most, after his or their Lands shall be surveyed as aforesaid, address himself or themselves unto you for Relief therein; for which purpose you are hereby authorized and impowered to examine Witnesses upon Oath for charging or clearing such person or persons: And you shall thereupon transmit a Copy of such your Determination unto the Register for the said Lands, to be by him entred into a Book for that purpose; according to which Determination so certified, the Lands of such person or persons shall be either discharged or disposed of, as other forfeited Lands.

And whereas for the lessening of the Charge of the Commonwealth, and easing of the Inhabitants of Ireland, It is resolved, That part of the present Army in Ireland be forthwith disbanded; and forasmuch as the surveying and dividing the Ten Counties aforesaid, and the determining the Lots between the Adventurers and soldiers touching the same, must necessarily be perfected before the soldiers can receive satisfaction of their arrears, out of any of the forfeited Lands in those Counties, which will unavoidably require so much time as would be an occasion of a great charge to the Commonwealth, in case such disbanding should be so long delayed: And it being evident, That if the soldiers should be disbanded before they can receive satisfaction for their Arrears, they would be exposed to great extremity, if not to utter ruine; To the end therefore such Officers and Soldiers as shall be so disbanded, may, immediately upon their disbanding, receive such proportions of Land, as may satisfie the Arrears grown due unto them since the Fifth of June, One thousand six hundred forty nine, and be put into a way of Planting, and the better enabled to subsist; You are hereby authorized and impowered, out of such of the forfeited Lands (as are not already disposed of by any Act, Ordinance or Order of Parliament) lying within any such five Counties in Ireland as you shall think fit (other then the Counties of Dublin, Kildare, and Caterlaugh, in the Province of Leinster, and Cork in the Province of Munster; and other then the eleven Counties herein by name appointed to be surveyed) to set forth, or cause to be set forth unto each of the Officers and Soldiers, to be disbanded as aforesaid (clear of all such Claims and Titles, provided for in the foregoing Instructions) proportions of profitable Land, by estimation or gross Survey of the number of Acres, as shall be sufficient to satisfie the Arrears due as aforesaid, to such Officer and Soldier respectively, at the values and rates hereafter mentioned; that is to say, For One thousand Acres in Ulster, Two hundred pounds; For One thousand Acres in Munster, Four hundred and fifty pounds; and for One thousand Acres in Leinster, Six hundred pounds, all according to Irish measure; which Estimate or gross Survey, you shall cause to be put in writing, and therein to be mentioned, as well the Sum of Money due to such Officer and Soldier respectively for his Arrears, as the number of Acres arrable, Meadow, and profitable Pasture, set forth unto him for his said Arrears, by estimation as aforesaid, so deciphered and distinguished by the Quantities, Qualities, Names, Scituation, Barony, Manor, or Parish as aforesaid; and shall cause such Survey to be sent unto the Register for the said Lands, to be safely kept as a Record; to the end, That in case (upon a more exact Survey and Admeasurement to be made, on the behhe Sof tlf atate, within five years next after such setting forth as aforesaid respectively) it shall appear, That the premises expressed in such Survey, and enjoyed by vertue thereof, do contain a greater number of Acres then is mentioned in such Estimate or gross Survey, the same may be restored back for the use of the Commonwealth, unless such persons shall purchase the same, in such maner as shall be hereafter declared.

Provided nevertheless, That if any Officer or Soldier so to be disbanded, holdeth any Custodium in any of the said five Counties, or in the Counties of Dublin, Kildare, Caterlaugh and Cork as aforesaid, and is there seated, and desires to retain the same; You are hereby impowered and authorized to contract with such Officer and Officers, Soldier or Soldiers, for Houses and Lands, with the appurtenances contained in such Custodium, at such rates and values as you shall think fit, and for the advantage of the Commonwealth (having a due respect therein to the charge which hath been laid out by such Officer or Soldier, in repairing or building upon the premises) and to allow the moneys due for such arrears as aforesaid unto such Officer or Soldier, in payment of the Purchase-money for the same; and in case the Purchase shall amount to more then the Arrears so due to such Officer or Soldier, then such remainder of the Purchase-money shall be paid in to the publique Treasury of Ireland, for the use of the Commonwealth; and that such Officer and Officers, Soldier and Soldiers, shall by force thereof hold and enjoy the same, according to such Contract; which, together with the Survey of the premises so contracted for, you shall cause to be returned to the said Register, to be safely kept with the rest of the Surveys.

And whereas the sum of Two hundred seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds, hath been by this present Parliament alowed as a Publique-Faith Debt, unto Sir John Jacob, Sir Job Harby, Sir Nicholas Crisp, Sir John Harrison, Knights; and others of the late Farmers of the Customs, upon the condition of advancing the like sum to the use of the Commonwealth, in maner hereafter mentioned; Be it therefore Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That if the sum of One hundred thousand pounds, part of the Two hundred seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds so to be advanced, shall be paid unto the Treasurers appointed by this Act, or one of them, by the said Sir John Jacob and other the late Farmers aforesaid (or by any other person or persons authorized and appointed under the Hands of any two or more of them) at or before the First day of January next following; then (upon the compleating of such payment) there shall be alowed the like sum of One hundred thousand pounds more as a Debt due upon the Publique-Faith of this Nation: And the said Treasurers are hereby authorized and required (when the said first One hundred thousand pounds shall be fully paid) to give unto the person or persons respectively so authorized and appointed to pay the same or any part thereof, a Bill or Receipt, Bills or Receipts for double the Sum of Money which he or they shall respectively pay in as a part of the One hundred thousand pounds aforesaid, with future Interest, after the rate of Six pounds upon every hundred pounds for the total Sum doubled as aforesaid: And to every person or persons, who shall in like maner pay in the whole Sum of One hundred thousand pounds more or any part thereof (parcel of the Two hundred seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds aforesaid) at or before the First day of February next ensuing, the said Treasurers or one of them, shall give like Bills or Receipts for a double Sum and future Interest thereon respectively, as the said second One hundred thousand pounds or any part thereof shall be paid in to them: And in case the said second One hundred thousand pounds shall be fully advanced and paid in, then if the remaining part of the said Two hundred seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds (being Seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds) or any part thereof, shall be advanced and paid in maner aforesaid, at or before the First day of May next coming, which shall be in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred fifty four; Then the said Treasurers or one of them, shall also give to every respective person or persons authorized and appointed to pay the same or any part thereof as aforesaid, like doubled Bills or Receipts, according as he or they shall pay in his or their Moneys respectively.

And it is hereby Declared, That the said first One hundred thousand pounds, and so much of the second One hundred thousand pounds as shall be advanced and paid in maner and form aforesaid, shall be reckoned and accounted as part of the Sum of Four hundred thousand pounds to be secured by this Act: And in case the said second One hundred thousand pounds shall be fully advanced, then so much of the said Seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds as shall be paid within the time before appointed, shall also be reckoned and accounted as part of the said Four hundred thousand pounds to be secured by this Act. And all Bills or Receipts given by the said

Treasurers or one of them, for all or any part of the said Two hundred seventy six thousand one hundred forty six pounds, with the Moneys and Interest in all or any of them mentioned, are hereby made assignable, applicable, and defalkable upon any purchase to be made for any part of the premises saleable by this Act, to all intents and purposes, as other such Bills or Receipts given by the direction of this Act are herein Ordained and Declared.

Provided, and it is hereby Declared, That if any of the said Farmers, his or their Executors or Administrators, shall refuse or fail to pay in his or their proportion of the Moneys hereby to be doubled by the times aforesaid, then the rest of the said Farmers and their Assigns, who shall pay in the proportion of such persons failing or any part thereof, shall have the benefit which the said person or persons should have had, and the person and persons so failing shall be barred thereof.

And forasmuch as many persons who have the said Farmers Securities for divers Sums of Money being dead, their Executors and Administrators cannot adventure to double the said debts out of the Estates of the parties deceased, without some danger to their own Estates; It is hereby Declared, That any such Executor or Administrator who shall double any such Debt, either out of the Estate of the party or parties deceased, or the proper Estate of such Executor or Administrator, shall not be accounted a waster of the Estate of the persons so deceased; but the Lands to be purchased with the said Moneys, shall be accounted Assets in Law and Equity to all Creditors and Legatees, and shall be liable to satisfie their debts and demands; and also the Executor and Administrator who shall advance any money for the doubling of such Debt or Debts out of his own Estate, shall be reimbursed with Damages out of the Lands so to be purchased.

And considering that the Improvement of the premises saleable and deafforestable by this Act, hath such a general tendency to the publique Welfare of this Nation, as that all persons forwarding and advancing the same may justly expect all due encouragement therein; It is further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every part of the premises which at the time of the passing of this Act did lie as Waste or was used in Common, (upon which no Tares or Assessments have been heretofore levied) shall not be liable to any Publique Tax or Assessment for the space of Three years, to be accounted from the time that each part or parcel thereof shall be alowed by the said Trustees or any Four or more of them in lieu of any Interest claimed; and from the time that any parcel of the premises shall be sold to any person or persons whatsoever respectively, notwithstanding any advantage that shall arise by improvement thereof within the time aforesaid; nor shall (after the said time) be subject to any Greater proportion in all Assessments whatsoever, then shall be generally laid upon all real Estates within this Nation.

And the Parliament doth hereby further Declare, That every Purchaser or Purchasers of any part of the premises, as also all other persons who shall have any proportion or proportions shall have and receive from time to time all lawful favor and assistance in anything or things (by his or their future address or addresses desired) tending to the watering, planting, peopling, manuring, bettering, and full improving of the premises or any part thereof, upon all occasions.

And that the Commonwealth may not be damnified, Sales may not be retarded, and the Contracts made by vertue of this Act may accordingly be perfected, Be it further Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That every person or persons who shall contract for any part of the premises by this Act appointed to be sold, and shall not pay in or defalk the Moneys payable for the same, in such maner and within such time, as by this Act is directed (unless he or they have license under the hands of the said Trustees or any four or more of them, for a longer term, which (upon depositing of the value of one third part of the total of his or their Contract-money to the said Treasurers or one of them, either in money or receipts Given by direction of this Act) they the said Trustees are hereby Impowred to give, shall forfeit to the use of the Commonwealth the full third part of the Money which his or their Contract shall amount unto; which third part so forfeited, the Treasurers or one of them, upon notice Given them from the said Trustees, signified by the Clerk of the Contracts, shall defalk out of such Bills or Receipts for Money payable by this Act, as were originally due, or at any time after assigned to any such person or persons at the time of the making of any such Contract or Contracts respectively, and all assignments of any such Bills or Receipts, made by any such person or persons after a Contract made by him or them, thereby to evade such Forfeiture, shall and are hereby Declared to be utterly void and of none effect, Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And for the better levying and receiving of all Forfeitures incurred by this Act, Be it Enacted and Ordained, That where the said Treasurers or one of them, shall not finde the person or persons contracting and making default as aforesaid, to be at the time of such Contract, or at any time before the said default made Creditors for any moneys answerable by this Act, they or one of them shall forthwith return Certificate thereof to the said Trustees: And the said Trustees or any four or more of them are thereupon hereby required and enjoyned to make certificate under their hands of the sum or sums of Money forfeited as aforesaid, unto the Commissioners for Sequestrations sitting at Haberdashers Hall, who are hereby authorized and required, upon the receipt of such Certificate from the said Trustees, to seize and sequester the real and personal Estate of every such person or persons, where ever the same or any part thereof shall lie and be, and the same to detain in their custody without sale or disposal thereof, for the space of Ten days: And if the said person or persons so sequestred, do pay or cause to be paid to the said Treasurers or one of them, his or their Forfeiture within the said Ten days, That then upon certificate thereof from the said Treasurers or any of them, to the said Commissioners, the said Commissioners shall discharge the said Sequestration of the said real and personal Estate of such person or persons; But in default of such payment to the said Treasurers or one of them, within the said Ten days, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to levy and raise such sum or sums of Money so certified to them as aforesaid, by sale of the goods, and receipt of the Rents, Issues and Profits of the Lands of such person or persons, and after the said sum so raised, the Lands and residue of the said Goods shall be restored and discharged from the said Sequestration: And all and every the said Forfeitures so raised by the respective Commissioners, shall be paid in by them to the said Treasurers or one of them, to be disposed of as other the Moneys to be raised by the Sale of the premises.

And it is hereby also Declared, That after such Forfeiture incurred as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees or any four or more of them, to contract for, and sell all or any the said Lands and Premises (so contracted for and not prosecuted) to any other person or persons, as if no other Contract thereof had been formerly made.

An Ordinance touching the Assessing, Levying, and Collecting of the latter three Moneths Assessment, appointed by an Act of the late Parlament, Entituled, An Act for an Assessment at the rate of 120,000l. by the Moneth, for six Moneths, from the 25 of December 1653. to the 24 June then next ensuing, towards the maintenance of the Armys and Navys of this Commonwealth.

[17 February, 1653/4.]

Act of 10 Dec., 1652, for monthly assessment for six months for the Army and Navy recited.

Whereas by an Act of the late Parlament, Entituled, An Act for an Assessment at the rate of one hundred and twenty thousand pounds by the Moneth, for six Moneths, from the five and twentieth day of December one thousand six hundred fifty and three, to the four and twentieth day of June then next ensuing, towards the maintenance of the Armies and Navies of this Commonwealth It is among other things provided and enacted, That if the Commissioners for any County, City, or Town in the said Act named, should at their second general meeting find, that, for want of sufficient time, a just and perfect survey, or rate, of each Parish or place within such County, City or Town, as is directed by the said Act, could not be made, and returned, so as to proceed to the rating and apportioning of the whole six moneths Assessments, in way and manner as is in that Act prescribed, That then it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners in any of the said Counties, Cities or Towns, where the said Surveys and rates for want of such sufficient time shall not be made and returned as aforesaid, to proceed at their second general meeting, to apportion the first three of the six moneths Assessment, according to the most just and equal way of rates held in such Counties, Cities, and Towns; And the Commissioners of such Counties, Cities and Towns, in their respective Divisions, to cause the same to be asssesed, levyed, collected and paid. And the Assessors, Collectors, and Sub-Collectors in their Respective Divisions, Parishes, and Places were thereby authorized and required, in assessing, levying, and collecting of the said first three Moneths Assessment, to proceed accordingly. And in such Counties, Cities and Towns where the first three Moneths Assessment was appointed to be assessed and levyed according to the rates held in such places as aforesaid, the several and respective Commissioners, and other persons therein, were authorized to put in execution all the powers given by that Act unto them, for causing the three said moneths assessment to bee fully and timely assessed, collected, levied, and paid, as if the same had been assessed and rated by a pound rate, and as the six moneths assessment appointed by that Act, were therein directed to bee assessed and rated. But for the apportioning, assessing, levying and payment of the last three of the said six moneths assessment by a survey and pound rate, It was Enacted, That the Commissioners of such Counties, Cities and Towns, where the first three moneths Assessment should bee appointed to be rated, assessed and paid, according to the rates held in such places as aforesaid, or the major part of them present at the said second general meeting, were thereby authorized, and required to appoint a third general meeting, on the first day of March, one thousand six hundred fiftie and three, and at their said second general meeting to give such orders and directions, and appoint such times for the effectual taking, examining and returning of surveys, and determining all controversies which might happen therein, as that a true, and a perfect survey of each parish, and place within such Countie, Citie, or Town might be returned unto them at their said third general meeting. And the said Commissioners in their respective Divisions, and Hundreds, or any two of them were likewise to proceed effectually therein, according to the powers given them in that Act for that purpose. And the Commissioners for such Countie, Citie or Town, or the major part of so many of them as should bee present at the said third general meeting, were thereby required to sum, and cast up the total of the surveys of each Countie, Citie, and Town, and to proceed to apportion levy and raise the said latter three moneths Assessment upon all Estates reall and personal, in such manner and by such wayes, as the Six Moneths Assessments were therein first appointed to be raised, assessed, levied and paid. And whereas by the said Act the latter three moneths Assessment is appointed to be collected so as the same may be fully paid into the high Collectors, and by them to the Receiver General to compleat the whole six months Assessment at, or before the twentieth day of April at the furthest, which shall bee in the year, one thousand six hundred fiftie and four. Now to the end the whole Assessment by the said Act appointed may be fully collected, and paid in for the preventing of free-quarter, and for the more effectual carrying on of the publique service, His Highness the Lord Protector by and with the advice and consent of his Council doth Declare and Ordain, That in case the way or manner of assessing the said later three moneths Assessment by a pound rate in such sort as is prescribed by the said Act shall prove prejudicial, and obstructive to the bringing in the said latter three Moneths Assessment appointed by the said Act, by the time in the said Act for that purpose limited, That then, and in all such cases, the said Commissioners in any of the said Cities, Counties, Townes, and places in the said Act mentioned where such obstructions shall bee or happen, shall appoint a generall meeting together, and the major part of them meeting, may, and are hereby authorized (for the removal of such obstructions, and the more speedy and effectual execution of the said Act) to proceed according to the most just and equal way of rates held in such places in the proportioning, levying and assessing the respective summes charged upon them, any thing in the said Act to the contrarie thereof contained in any wise notwithstanding.

An Ordinance for further doubling upon and finishing the sale of Deans, Deans and Chapters Lands, and Manors of Rectories, Gleab-Lands, &c.

[4 May, 1654.]

Recital of former Acts and Ordinance.

Whereas by one Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Sale of the Manors of Rectories and Gleab-Lands, late belonging to Arch-bishops, Bishops, Deans, Deans and Chapters, it is Enacted and Declared, That all Manors of Rectories impropriate, Messuages, Tenements, Gleab-lands, Pastures, Meadows, Marshes, belonging to any Rectory impropriate, and Fee-farm Rents issuing out of Manors of Rectories impropriate, joyntly or severally charged therewith, late belonging or appertaining to any Rectory inpropriate, Parsonage, Church, Chappel or Donative, late appertaining or belonging to any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Prebend or other person or persons or Bodies Politique mentioned in one Ordinance of the Ninth of December, One thousand six hundred forty and six, Entituled, An Ordinance of this present Parliament for Abolishing of Archbishops and Ordinance 9 December 1646.

Bishops within the Commonwealth of England, and Dominion of Wales, and for setling their Lands and Possessions upon Trustees for the use of the Commonwealth; And in one Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act of the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, for the Abolishing of Deans, Deans and Chapters, Canons, Prebends and other Offices and Titles of or belonging to any Cathedral or Collegiate Church or Chappel within England and Wales, to be abolished in right of his or their said Office or function should be and were setled in the full seisin and possession of the respective Trustees in the said Ordinance and Act named, their Heirs and Assigns. And the said respective Trustees in the said Ordinance and Act named, were authorized and required to contract, bargain, sell, alien and convey all and every the premises, and to execute all powers and authorities in sale thereof, as they might have done in the sale of any Honors, Manors or Lands in the said Ordinance and Act mentioned. 30 April 1649.

And whereas likewise by one other Act, Entituled, An Additional Act for the more speedy effecting of the Sale of the Manors of Rectories and Gleab-lands, late belonging to Archbishops, Bishops, Deans, Deans and Chapters, &c. and for the better incouragement of Lenders upon the security thereof, and of other Lands and Hereditaments of the said Deans and Chapters, the Parliament did Enact and Declare, That all and singular the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which by the said Act for Abolishing of Deans, Deans and Chapters, &c. were exposed to sale, and not contracted for before the Five and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred and fifty, (other then such as by the said last recited Act were reserved from sale) should be, and were thereby declared to be part of the Security for the One hundred and twenty thousand pounds, which by the said before recited Act was to be borrowed, and should extend to secure as well as the Debts, Principal and Interest, which should be doubled, as the moneys which should be advanced and paid in to double the same, and the Interest from the time of doubling until the payment. And that of the Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments (by the said Act for abolishing of Deans, Deans and Chapters, &c. exposed to sale) so contracted for before the Five and twentieth day of October, One thousand six hundred and fifty, should (according to the rates at which the same were contracted for) amount unto a greater value then the moneys, debts and other charges, which before the Second day of October, One thousand six hundred and fifty, were charged upon the same, or to be satisfied thereby, and it should be so declared by the Committee for Obstructions; That in such case the overplus of the value of the premises so contracted for, should also be, and should be accounted as part of the security for the said moneys: And it was also Enacted and Ordained, That the Trustees in whom the same premises so intended for security were respectively vested, and their heirs respectively, should stand seized thereof, and of the Rents, Issues and Profits thereof 16 and 23 October 1650 until sale, and of the moneys which should be raised by the sale thereof, unto and for the uses following, viz. For the payment of the Moneys and Debts which should be owing upon the security of the said premises, and all Salaries and incident charges, and the remainder thereof to the use of the Commonwealth, in such maner as the Parliament should appoint; And that all and every the said Rents, issues and Profits of the premises, and moneys to be raised by the sale thereof, should be paid and issued out to the purposes aforesaid, by the Treasurers thereof, according to such Warrant as they should receive from the Trustees for Deans, Deans and Chapters Lands, or any five or more of them in that behalf: And whereas by the last recited Act, all and every the premises so appointed for security as aforesaid, were appointed to be sold, and were absolutely disposed unto the said respective Trustees for that purpose, well for satisfying the moneys upon the said security, and for raising of moneys for the Service of the Commonwealth; as also, to put a full end unto that business, and the charge of Officers and others employed therein.

And whereas nevertheless, some part of the premises yet remaineth unsold, there being so much already contracted for, as is sufficient to satisfie all the Moneys due upon the former Securities: And whereas also former Contracts could not be so exactly setled as to the precise sums, by differing securities respectively charged upon the Revenue of the said Deans, Deans and Chapters, and other the premises aforesaid, whereby some sort of Debts, to which the said premises are lyable, are more then provided for to a considerable value, and the rest not applicable to satisfie such overplus which doth tend to the disadvantage both of particular persons, and also of the Commonwealth, by retarding the whole work.

Above the sum formerly borrowed, 20,000*l.* more shall be borrowed on these Lands.

To the end therefore a speedy end may be put to the said Sale, and the Commonwealth eased of the burthen and charge thereof, Be it Ordained by His Highness the Lord Protector, by and with the consent of His Council, and it is Ordained by the authority aforesaid, That over and above the sum of Three hundred thousand pounds appointed to be borrowed upon the Security held forth by the first recited Act, and over and above the sum of One hundred and twenty thousand pounds more borrowed upon the Security held forth in the two last recited Acts, or either of them, the sum of Twenty thousand pounds shall be further borrowed upon the Security of such of the premises respectively exposed to sale by the said Acts, or either of them, in such sort as is hereafter expressed, by way of doubling the like sum as shall be due to any person or persons, Body Politique or Corporate, for any Money, Plate, Horse, Arms or other thing advanced upon the Publique Faith, or which hath been at any time allowed by any Act or Ordinance of Parliament to be doubled, as Publique Faith, together with Interest upon such Publique Faith Debts, after the rate of Eight pounds in the Hundred by the year, until the stating of such Debts and Interest, by the persons named and appointed in and by an Act

To His Highness the Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, and Ireland; and the Dominions thereto belonging; The humble Petition and Advice of the Knights Citizens and Burgesses now assembled in the Parliament, of this Commonwealth.

[25 May, 1657.]

We the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in this present Parliament assembled, taking into our most serious consideration the present State of the three Nations, joyned and united under your Highness Protection, cannot but in the first place with all thankfulness acknowledge the wonderfull mercy of Almighty God, in delivering us from that Tyranny and Bondage, both in our Spiritual and Civil Concernments, which the late King and his Party designed to bring us under, and pursued the effecting thereof by a long and bloody war; And also that it hath pleased the same gracious God to preserve your person in many battels, to make you an Instrument for preserving our Peace, though environed with Enemies abroad, and filled with turbulent, restless, and unquiet Spirits in our own Bowels, that as in the treading down the common Enemy, and restoring us to Peace and Tranquillity, the Lord hath used you so eminently, and the worthy Officers and Souldiers of the Army (whose faithfulness to the Common Cause, we and all good men shall ever acknowledge, and put a just value upon) So also that he will use you and them in the setling and securing our Liberties as we are Men and Christians, to us and our Posterity after us, which are those great and glorious ends which the good people of these Nations have so freely, with the hazard of their Lives and Estates, so long and earnestly contended for: We consider likewise the continual danger which your Life is in, from the bloody Practises both of the malignant and discontented Party (one whereof through the goodness of God, you have been lately delivered from) it being a received Principle amongst them, that no Order being setled in your Life time for the succession in the Government, nothing is wanting to bring us into blood and confusion, and them to their desired ends, but the destruction of your Person; And in case things should thus remain at your Death, we are not able to express what Calamities would in all humane probability ensue thereupon, which we trust your Highness (as well as we) do hold your self obliged to provide against, and not to leave a people, whose common Peace and Interest you are intrusted with, in such a condition as may hazard both, especially in this Conjuncture, when there seems to be an opportunity of coming to a settlement upon just and legal Foundations: Upon these considerations, we have judged it a duty incumbent upon us, to present and declare these our most just and necessary desires to your Highness.

1. That your Highness will be pleased by and under the Name and Stile of Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, to hold and exercise the Office of chief Magistrate of these Nations, and to Govern according to this Petition and Advice in all things therein contained, and in all other things according to the Laws of these Nations, and not otherwise: That Your Highness will be pleased during Your life time, to appoint and Declare the Person who shall, immediately after Your Death, Succeed You in the Government of these Nations.

2. That Your Highness will for the future be pleased to call parliaments consisting of Two Houses (in such manner as shal be more particularly afterwards agreed and declared in this Petition and Advice) once in three years at furthest, or oftner, as the Affairs of the Nation shall require, that being your great Council, and in whose affection and advice, Your self and this People will be most safe and happy.

3. That the ancient and undoubted Liberties and Priviledges of Parliament (which are the birth-right and inheritance of the people, and wherein every man is interessed,) be preserved and maintained; and that you will not break or interrupt the same, nor suffer them to be broken or interrupted; and particularly, that those persons who are legally chosen by a free Election of the people to serve in Parliament, may not be excluded from sitting in Parliament to do their duties, but by judgement and consent of that House whereof they are Members.

4. That those who have advised, assisted or abetted the Rebellion of Ireland, and those who do or shall profess the Popish Religion, be disabled and made uncapable for ever to be elected or to give any Vote in the election of any Member to sit or serve in Parliament; and that all and every person and persons who have aided, abetted, advised or assisted in any war against the Parliament, since the First day of Jan. 1641 (unless he or they have since borne Arms for the Parliament or Your Highness, or otherwise given signal testimony of his or their good affection to the Commonwealth, and continued faithfull to the same) and all such as have been actually engaged in any Plot, Conspiracy, or Design against the Person of Your Highness, or in any Insurrection or Rebellion in England or Wales since the 16. day of December 1653. shall be for ever disabled and made uncapable to be elected, or give any Vote in the Election of any Member to sit or serve in Parliament. That for Scotland none be capable to elect, or to be elected to sit or serve in Parliament, who have been in Arms against the Parliament of England, or against the Parliament in Scotland before the 1 day of April, 1648. An Act for the preventing the multiplicity of Buildings in and about the Suburbs of London, and within ten miles of the same.

[26 June, 1657.]

Annoyance by Buildings.

Whereas the great and excessive number of Houses, Edifices, Out-houses and Cotages erected and new built in and about the Suburbs of the City of London, and the parts thereunto adjoyning, is found to be very mischievous and inconvenient, and a great Annoyance and Nusance to the Common-wealth: And whereas, notwithstanding divers Prohibitions heretofore had and made to the contrary, yet the said growing Evil is of late so much multiplyed and increasing that there is a necessity of taking some further and speedy Course for the redress thereof: And whereas by the Law the said Houses and Nusances ought to be abated, and the Builders, Occupiers, Continuers and Tenants thereof ought to make Fines for the same; so that if the severity of the Law should be inflicted in such Cases, it would tend to the undoing of divers persons who have laid out all, or a great part of their Estates in such new Buildings: For the Reformation therefore of the aforesaid Mischief and Nusance for the present, and the prevention of the like for the future, and for the avoiding of Suits, Presentments and Indictments which are, and may otherwise be brought and had against such Builders, Owners, and Tenants of the aforesaid Houses, Edifices, Out-houses, and Cotages so Built and continued as aforesaid; Be it Enacted and Ordained by his Highness the Lord Protector and this present Parliament, and by the Authority thereof, That for every Dwelling-house, Out-house, or any other Building Erected, Built, and Continued upon any New Foundation within the Suburbs of the said City of London, or in any other place or places within Ten Miles of the Walls of the said City, since the Twenty fifth day of March, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand six hundred and twenty, and not having four Acres of Land at least, according to the Statute or Ordinance De Terris mensurandis, being his or her Freehold and Inheritance that have so built, continuyall therewith used, occupied, and enjoyed, there shall be paid unto his Highness the Lord Protector, or to his Successors for the use of the Commonwealth, one Years Rent or Years Value, at the full and unproved Yearly Value of every such Dwelling-house, Out-

Fines for Houses built on new Foundations, within ten miles of the Walls of London, since the 25 of March, 1620.

Fine.

house, and other Building; Which said Improved Value or Rent, shall be paid by the immediate Tenant or Tenants, Occupier or Occupiers of such Houses at a Rack-Rent, and he or they to be reimbursed the same out of the Rents or Profits of such Houses, any Covenant, Promise, Contract or Security made or given by such Tenants or Occupiers to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Fine apportioned for houses not held at a rack-Rent.

And in case the said Houses are not held at a Rack-rent, then the said years Rent or Value shall be divided and severally assessed upon, and paid by the Owners and Tenants thereof in such proportion as to the Commissioners to be appointed for that purpose, or any three or more of them shall seem meet, alwaies having due regard to the quantity, quality and value of the several and respective interests and Estates therein, whose Determination and Settlement thereof shall be a full and final Conclusion to the said immediate Tenant or Tenants and Proprietors, and to all parties therein concerned, which said years balance or profit shall be paid in full satisfaction and Discharge of all and every such Fine or Fines, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, Penalty or Penalties, as such person or persons, Tenant or Tenants were or are lyable to lose or pay for the building or continuing of such Houses, and such Builders, Owners, Tenants and Continuers thereof, and every of them, from and after such payment, by the authority aforesaid, shall be for ever hereafter acquitted, exonerated and discharged of and from such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture; Which said years Rent or Value shall be paid in manner and form following; (That is to say) one moyety upon the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thousand six hundred fifty seven, or within three moneths after the setting of the said Fine, and the other moyety upon the Twenty fifth day of March then next following, or within six moneths after the setting of the said Fine.

Times of payment of the Fines.

And to the intent that the said years Rent may be Assessed, Levyed, and raised Proportionably and Indifferently upon every Owner, Tenant, and Under-tenant respectively, of every such Dwelling-house, Out-house and new Building, according to their several Estates and Interests therein, and for the better discovery of the said new built Houses and Edifices, and for the more speedy levying of the aforesaid Values and Rents of the said respective Houses and Edifices so Built and Continued as aforesaid; Be it Enacted and Ordained by the authority aforesaid, That a Commission shall be made and directed by the Commissioners of the Great Seal of England, unto such fit persons as his Highness the Lord Protector shall nominate, not exceeding the Number of Fifteen; And likewise to a fit person to be a Receiver of such moneys as shall be assessed by vertue of this Act, and to Three able and fit persons to be Registers to do as it shall be hereafter in this Act directed and appointed: And the Commissioners so constituted, or any three or more of them are hereby required, on or by the First day of July, 1657, to direct their several or joynt precept or precepts to such Inhabitants, Constables, sub-Constables,
